The regular monthly meetings of the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society are held the second Thursday of each month, 7:00 p.m., at the Jackson-Madison County Library, Jackson, Tennessee.

(The following articles concerning the April and May, 1970, program meetings taken from THE JACKSON SUN, local newspaper in Jackson, Tenn. Mrs. Charles Sevier is News Reporter for the Society.)

APRIL, 1970 PROGRAM MEETING

Mrs. Charles Sevier reviewed the historical and fascinating book, "Night Riders of Reelfoot Lake," at the April meeting of the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society. This book, written by Dr. Paul Vanderwood, and recently published, is a result of years of research, including interviews with some self-admitted night riders, research of court records, old newspapers and the Tennessee Archives Department.

Mrs. Sevier told of the formation of the lake in 1811 by a series of earthquakes and the migration of settlers or "squatters" to the region, who made a living by fishing and considered it "their" land. Through haphazard land grants and much litigation the lake was finally acquired by a Land Company, owned by several individuals, including several lawyers, who had formerly represented the natives. The natives were bewildered and felt double-crossed.

The story is a classic example of the struggle of American pioneers to preserve their way of life and to retaliate against what they considered an injustice. From April until October 1908, the territory around Reelfoot Lake writhed in terror and violence as the masked riders attempted to focus attention on their predicament. As in most revolutionary movements it turned into blood shed. Climaxing their acts of violence was the kidnapping of two of Tennessee's most prominent lawyers and the murder of one of them.

The reviewer told of the trial of the riders, their acquittal in a reversed decision by the Supreme Court of Tennessee and finally of the purchase of the Land Company by the state. Mrs. Sevier concluded her review by saying, "the book is a well documented reconstruction of the Reelfoot Lake episode that vividly illustrates fundamental problems with which we yet struggle."

MAY 1970 PROGRAM MEETING

The program, entitled TRY A TRIP BACKWARD, was ably presented by Mrs. Howell Lee Davidson, who showed slides of historic homes and sites in Hardeman County, Tennessee. Mrs. Davidson used lines of poems written by West Tennessee poets to illustrate each scene.

ANCESTRALLY SPEAKIN'

The following letter tells of the founding of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Jackson, Tennessee. It was written some 30 years after the event by the first minister of the organization. This letter was contributed by Col. James S. Corbitt - 118 Gardner Ave. - Martin, Tenn. 38237. Mrs. Corbitt is the great granddaughter of its author, the Rev. George W. Mitchell.

Pulaski, Tenn. Ap. 23^d 1901

Dear Sam:

At your request I will furnish you, from recollection some facts about the organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in the City of Jackson, Tenn.

In fall of 1871, I met Rev. Wm. Monroe Dunaway in the City of Nashville, Tenn. He was attending the Grand Lodge of Tenn, of the Masonic Fraternity. He had an interview with me in reference to taking charge of the interprize of building up up a C. P. Church in Jackson. At his request I agreed to make him a visit. The time was set, (perhaps it was in Dec.) On that visit he and I entered into an agreement and early in Jan. 1872 (I do not remember the exact date I arrived there with my family. And went into a rented house on _____ street.

We had no organization nor church house. Brother Dunaway had been appointed, (or requested,) by West Tenn. Synod to do what he could to have a church established there. Our membership there was small. And aside from Dunaway, there were none possessed of much financial means.

Through Brother Dunaways agency the little Brick house church on _____ Street was erected, and was still unfinished. Bro. D and a few others, had become responsible for the cost.

Brother D. Agreed to secure my salary. And the Synod had authorized him to canvass its congregations to raise funds to meet all these expenses. (more on this after awhile.). An arrangement was made with the official members of the Christian Church, which was vacant; and we held our regular services in their church. until they got /// a pastor, or our house was finished.

Early in the Spring, we commenced holding services in our own house. It was in April, I think, we organized the church, dedicated the (house?), with, (I think) 25 or 30 members, including myself, wife and four children.

Bro. Cabiness, Jas. Anderson, Thos Anderson, _____ were elected elders. . . and _____ Wadley _____ Deacons. I ordained these officers except Bro Cabiness who had previously been an elder.

Brother Dunaway assisted in the dedication of the house, so also did Brother W. W. Estell, who was then Pastor of Mt. Tabor Church.

I do not remember what part in this service was performed by each, except that I preached the dedication Sermon.

Sam, I am sorry that my memory is somewhat confused in regard to some facts connected with the organization of the.

It seems to that we organized sometime before the dedication. That we commenced services in the little brick in Feby. and soon after that orgaized.

I remember who were elected elders and deacons, if there were others besides those named.

If I were there to talk // with members Sister Stribling Bro Wadley Keith Sister Anderson & perhaps others my memory would be refreshed.

Bro. Wm. E. Dunaway was then living in Nashville. I have not mentioned the fact that Bro. W. M. D.'s /// health broke down in May, while at the General Assembl so that he could not canvass the Synod. In rasing funds to pay the debt of the Church, in building and my salary.

I sacrafisced about $500.00 the year I spent in the service of that interprize.

Surely it is marvelous how that Church has struggled through so many disasters and has greatly prospered.

"It is the Lord's doing, it is marvellous in our eyes"

I close with undying interest for the welfare of yourself and family.

/s/ Your devoted Father

P. S. Do, keep us posted in regard to all your interests.

I should feel much gratified if the Genl. could obtain the appointment and hope you will exersise your influnce with your representation in his behalf.

Our old friend Genl. Wm. Martin is also a candidate for ingrossing clerk to the Senate. I would feel much gratified to heare of your affording any aid in your power, in procureing for him that appointment, their is not any man more deserving as I think and I might add not many qualified more needy. Their has bedureing the present term of the Circuit Court (which closes its session today, one man, Kerby found guilty of the murder of one Elrod. one Cook found guilty of mansloter of killing his father and one Mash elected to the penetentiary for steeling. Bacon, we have no commenced commenced the work of reform, altho not the first county by many, represented in the penetentiary, yet it is likely unless a referma-tion we will /// furnish our Coto, or at least keep page with other counties of our population. It will not be long before your old county will be represented as I understand their are candidates for election at the next Court. We have had an unusual wet season five crops of corn but little good which, and I fear we will make but little cotton, their is more sickness than usual especially along the Caney fork, My family enjoys good health, except some complaints amoungs my children, but not of a serious carractor. -CONGRATULATIONS to FAE (Mrs. Robert S.) OWENS, who as of 27 March 1970, was accepted by the Board of Certification of Genealogists, Washington, D. C., to be certified as a Genealogical Record Searcher.

There is a difference in a Genealogist and a Record Searcher. A Genealogist is one who not only conducts research among primary sources and studies secondary works, but also constructs genealogies of families based upon his investigation of the sources and careful analysis of the evidence. A Genealogical Record Searcher is one who searches original records, (census enumerations, wills, deeds, Court records, pensions, marriage records, military records, etc.) but makes no attempt to reconstruct a pedigree or to prepare a family history.

To our knowledge there are only three other Genealogical Record Searchers in the State of Tennessee besides Mrs. Owens.

FAE, we are truly proud of you and are pleased to have one so qualified as a member of our Society.

Written on a small piece of paper found in this old Bible was the following:

M. D. L. Abbott professed hope in Christ - August 24th 7 O.C A.M. 1878, Baptized into the Hickory Grove Baptist Church by Rev. M. Hillsman Sept. 6th 1878.

A Newspaper clipping in the Bible read as follows:

Departed this life on the 17th of May, 1851, at the residence of her mother, (Mrs. Martha Borum,) Sister Martha T. Cole, wife of Brother John G. Cole, in the 19th year of her age.

She embraced religion in the 17th year of her age, and during health, continued to manifest her attachment to that Saviour whom she loved, by a faithful attendance at God's house, and an exemplary walk and conversation. She was a lady of but few words, her conversation was that as directed "yea, yea, nay, nay."

After her marriage, she became the mother of one child, (a daughter,) and was immediately attacked with consumption, which continued to waste away her frame, naturally delicate, until her mortal body was truly like a shadow. But the Lord's name be praised for sustaining grace, which he vouchesafe unto her, until her latest breath. During her protracted illness, she was patient, and expressed perfect resignation to the will of the Lord. She regretted to leave her husband, and friends, and especially her delicate infant, but expressed herself like the apostle, "for me to die is gain," and her happy spirit felt a strong "desire to depart and be with Christ."—And in the triumphs of faith she yielded up her spirit, unto God who gave it. She has left us without a cloud upon her moral sky, to join the saints in light. May the Lord watch over the little one for good and sustain the husband and relatives under this heavy affliction, that they may not sorrow as those who have no hope.

EARLY SETTLERS BURIED ON FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH PROPERTY IN MILAN, GIBSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, contributed by Mrs. Swink Pearce, 226 Park Ave., Milan, Tenn. 38558.

Tombstones of Rev. Sam P. Clark and Wife Elizabeth W. (Woolfolk) Clark are enclosed in a black iron fence in the churchyard of the First Baptist Church of Milan, Tennessee, and have these inscriptions on their respective tombstones:

REV. S. P. CLARK

Born Mar. 5 1801

Died Mar. 8 1880

Age 78 Yrs., 11 Mos. and 28 Days

"Blessed are the Dead which Die in the Lord"

ELIZABETH W.

Wife of Rev. Sam P. Clark

Died Aug. 1 1878

Aged 66 Yrs. 11 Mos, 2 Days

"Blessed are the Dead which Die in the Lord"

(Footmarks at each respective grave read "SPC" and "EWC")

The Couple married in North Carolina and came to Carroll County, Tennessee, where four children were born: Samuel, Jim, Elizabeth, and Helen. Probably the highest elevation in Carroll County is a very tall hill near Atwood. This hill has always been known as Clark's Mountain because it belonged to Rev. Sam P. Clark before he moved to Milan, Tenn., and became one of Milan's first settlers. The First Baptist Church in Milan was built on land donated by Rev. Clark. His deed to the First Baptist Church specified that if for any reason this property or church lot ceased to be used by the Baptist Church, the land was to revert back to his heirs. In his will he stated that he and his wife were to be buried on the church lot.

The following was submitted by Mrs. P. E. McGuyre, 1920 S. 107th St. West, Wichita, Kansas 67209.

At Point Lookout in southern Maryland in St. Mary's County is a small, well kept park containing two monuments. These are the Point Lookout monuments honoring the graves of the Confederate soldiers who died in prison at Point Lookout during the Civil War. Mrs. McGuyre copied the following items from this monument when she visited it in May 1969.

After the Battle of Gettysburg, the Union established a prisoner of war camp here. Confederate soldiers and Maryland civilians were imprisoned with only tents for protection. The camp was in existence from March 1, 1864, to June 30, 1865, and during this time between three and four thousand prisoners died. Inscribed around the base of the large monument are many names. The following were copied:

G.(C?) H. IRWIN, Co. E 3rd Alabama Cavalry

J. D. McCARRY, Co. E. 63rd Tennessee

J. F. PATEON, Co. H 14th Virginia Cavalry

WM. RAGSDALE, Co. E 42nd Mississippi

WM. WALKER, Co. A 3rd Tennessee

This monument is on a beautiful point where the Potomac River enters Chesapeake Bay.

The following information, contributed to FAMILY FINDINGS by Mrs. Charles Bruer, 46 Harmony Lane, Jackson, Tenn., was taken from the publication WOMEN'S WORK and OTHER HISTORICAL EVENTS of FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH, CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE 1842-1954, compiled and arranged by Hazel McCracken McDaniel.

Family histories from this publication, section "Old Families of This Church Whose Names Have Been Written Into The History of The Church by Christian Service", will be published from time to time in FAMILY FINDINGS.

BARKER, FERGUSON, MERIWETHER, HUMPHREYS:

"Chas. Barker and his wife Barbara Walton were the first Barker family to settle in this section. They came from Virginia in 1800 and built their home, Fairfields, just over the Tennessee border in Kentucky, about twelve miles from Clarksville.

From the descendants of this first Chas. Barker and his wife have come many good Christians in the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ.

Their son, Richard, and his wife Caroline Barker, are said by Barker relatives to have been pillars in the Clarksville church. According to "Picturesque Clarksville" Caroline Barker (Mrs. Richard Barker) was one of the organizers of the Christian Church in Clarksville in 1842.

The first Chas. Barker's granddaughter, Mollie Walton Barker, who married her cousin, Edward W. Barker, became identified with this fellowship in 1887, coming to this church from old Eurogesia, In Kentucky, near the Peacher Mill Community.

This old church has been torn down, but at one time had a very strong membership and was the church home of many Disciples of Christ who became from time to time identified with the Clarksville church.

Mrs. Mollie Barker's daughter, Jennie Barker (who married Dr. Joe Meriwether), also a member of Eurogesia, became a member of this church in 1892 and worshipped here for about three years before moving to her home "West End" in the Peacher Mill Community. Her daughter, Mrs. Mike Northington (Octavia Meriwether) has graciously furnished this information from her family history.

The first Chas. Barker's granddaughter, Nancy Barker, married Robert Ferguson and they gave the ground for "Hazelwood", where the early Disciples of Christ in the Peacher Mill Community worshipped. Later this church was used as a Methodist church, but is no longer standing.

Robert and Nancy Barker Ferguson's son, Mr. Tom Ferguson, and his wife were devoted members of this church and at the time of his death Mr. Ferguson was serving as Elder.

Robert Ferguson's brothers, Elder Jesse and Elder John Ferguson, served this church soon after its organization, preaching here once each month, according to "Picturesque Clarksville", and Elder John Ferguson preached once each month in 1853-54.

Another granddaughter of the first Chas. Barker, Nancy Meriwether, married one John Ferguson, and their son, Mr. Jim Ferguson and his family, attended the Clarksville church at one time.

Their daughter, Kitty Ferguson, married Peter Anderson, who with their, Virginia, Peter, and Jimmie, were identified with this church and recorded in the register of the church in 1921. Mr. Anderson became an Elder in 1922, and the entire family was active until they moved to another city.

The first Chas. Barker's granddaughter, Mary Meriwether, married Hon. R. W. Humphreys of this city, who with Mr. Ben Coulter, J. E. Rice, and Dr. Bernard, carried the work of the church forward after the death of Rev. J. E. Miles in 1871, according to "Picturesque Clarksville".

Mr. Humphreys was born April 14, 1824 and died May 25, 1878. His biographer, Major Gustavus Henry, says of him: "I have never met any man outside of the ministry who had read the Bible with more care, and whose mind was so full of Biblical illustrations. It was to him the book of books, as well as the book of life." In an old Sunday School record of 1889, his daughter, Miss Carrie Humphreys, is given as one of the teachers, and in 1893, according to another old Sunday School record, his grandchildren (and the great, great grandchildren of the first Chas. Barker) were in the Sunday School of this church.

The Humphreys home is now used as the Administration Building in the Pettus Memorial Park.

EXPENSES

Upon this subject, the Board would remark; that, neither the usage of the community, nor the advantage of the student, demands that the expenses should be great. The necessary expenses are as follows, viz:-

|--|----------------|
| Tuition in English, preparatory department | $6 to $10.00 |
| Tuition in Classic preparatory department | $15.00 |
| Tuition in College Proper | $20.00 |
| Contingent Tax, and copy of By-Laws | $00.70 |
| Board, including Washing, Firewood, Etc. | $30.00 |

The above are the expenses of a student, each session of five months. The parent or guardian will see how much money he should give to the student when he leaves home. The tuition fees, in whatever department the student may enter, have to be paid before he can recite. This regulation has been found to be the only one on which the trustees can depend. The board may or may not be paid in advance; it is not required until the end of the session. And the trustees do most earnestly urge upon parents or guardians not to let their sons or wards be allowed to contract accounts, without some written permission. If the student has the money to pay for the articles as he gets them, he can get them at any house in the village where he can do the best, and he can always do better than if he were to buy upon credit. Books and medicine will be sold to any student, as he may need them, by our merchants, upon credit if necessary.

The Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society's first Workshop, May 22, 23, 1970, co-sponsored by the Continuing Education Department of Jackson State Community College, proved to be most informative to the forty-five (45) persons who attended. It was conducted by the very capable and qualified Miss Pollyanna Creekmore of Knoxville, Tennessee.

The Society is deeply indebted to Dr. Homer Lawrence, head of the Continuing Education Department of the college, for his time and effort in making this affair so successful. The Society also expresses its appreciation to Mrs. Howell Lee Davidson, Workshop Chairman; Mrs. Barbara Richardson, Publicity Chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth Sevier, News Reporter for the Society, who did the creative writing used to publicize the Workshop; and to all others, too numerous to mention names, who worked so diligently.

The following is the epitaph of Ezekiel Polk, grandfather of former President James K. Polk, which is in the Polk Cemetery at Bolivar, Hardeman County, Tennessee. This epitaph is visited each year by many people as it is so unusual.

"Here lies the dust of old E. P.
One instance of mortality
Pennsylvania born
Carolina bred
Died in Tennessee on his bed.
His youthful days he spent in pleasure
His latter days in gathering treasure
From superstition lived quite free
And practiced strict morality.
To holy cheats was never willing
To give one solitary shilling.
He can forsee and for foreseeing
He equals most of men and being
That Church and State will join their power
And misery on this country shower
And the Methodists with their camp brawlings
Will be the cause of this downfalling
An era not destined to see
Waits for poor posterity
First fruits and tithes are odious things
And so are Bishops, priests and Kings.

(The lines about the Methodists were chiseled out by a group of President Polk's supporters when he was running for President, as they thought the Methodist vote might go against him.) Years later these deleted lines were put back into the epitaph. Submitted by Elizabeth (Mrs. Charles) Sevier.
